

Longfellow Farm would like to announce our upcoming clinics with Leonie “Button” Baker

“ Leonie Button Baker is not only a very dear friend she is an amazing coach and a rider. Her education goes way back and with some of the most well know in our Sport. Button was my ground person most of my career when I would travel to CA for the shows. She guided Brentina and I to many victories. She is the real DEAL!!! “

- Debbie McDonald: USEF Equestrian of the Year 1999, 2003 Dressage World Cup Winner, 2002 Team Silver and 2006 Team Bronze WEG, 2004 Team Bronze and 4th overall Athens Olympics.

Whether you are a dressage rider wanting to improve your scores or you are looking for greater suppleness and control in your horse, Button has a unique eye for pinpointing the problem.

Born in the UK, educated in Belgium, Button moved to Switzerland to train. She later moved to the USA competing successfully to the Grand Prix level and has continued to coach and train throughout the US.
